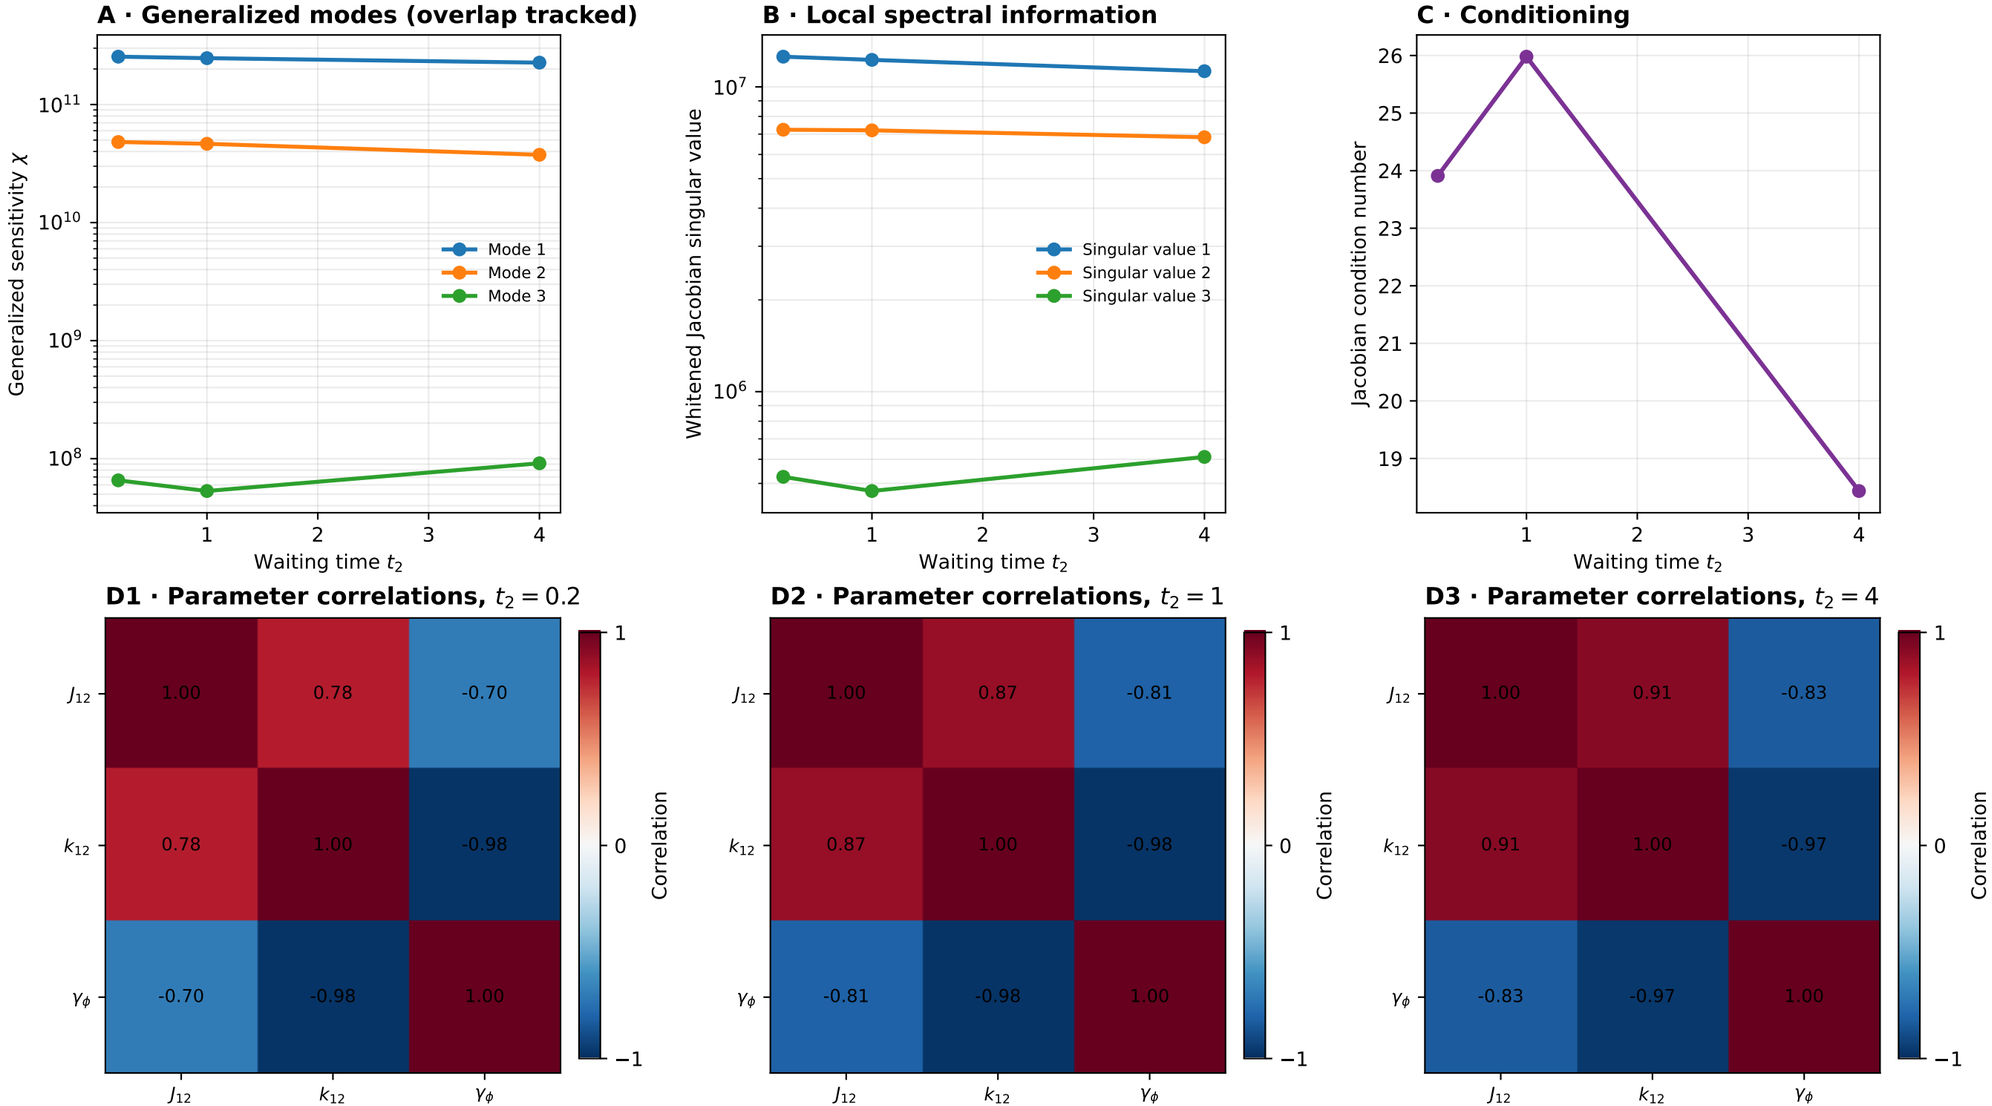
Waiting-time observability of the three-parameter dimer



Information uses equal independent Cartesian noise weights at each sampled complex pixel. The physical metric is fixed across waiting times: G = diag(1/sᵢ²), with the benchmark reference scales. Information diagnostics use the recorded coarse 3 × 3 benchmark grid; eigenvectors are matched by maximum G-overlap.